Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Saturday 02 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly cold dry and sunny.

Today:
Early morning showers die out for most soon after dawn leaving a largely dry day with plenty of sunshine, patchy cloud in the east and just the odd wintery shower near the north coast and Speyside. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tonight:
Cold and dry with clear skies in the west allowing a widespread sharp frost. Cloud encroaches inland across far north and Speyside bringing a few overnight showers here. Minimum temperature -11 deg C (12 deg F).

Sunday:
Cold dry and sunny in the west. Cloudier in the east with a few showers, these mainly over Speyside where they will be wintery over high ground. Maximum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Remaining cold. Dry for most with sunny spells, light winds and sharp overnight frosts. Occasional wintery showers in the east, perhaps more persistent rain spreading southeast later Wednesday.
